

Mission Statement: Growing knowledge of hospice, palliative care and grief recovery.

Goal: Promoting enhanced quality of life for the terminally ill, their families, caregivers, and friends.

Objective: Creating programs, providing current and valid caregiving information for use in end-of-life care and fostering healing for the bereaved.

Crossroads Hospice Charitable Foundation's current programs include: Grief Recovery Method® programs for the bereaved, Crossroads Kids' Camps for grieving children, Insights within our website to offer caregiving information, and public events addressing end-of-life concerns in many communities.
